

Quantitative Aptitude: This section tests your basic calculation skills. This section of the course is almost identical to that of IBPS clerks. For this section, you should prepare the following topics;

Basic mathematical functions / BODMAS rules

Square

Cubes

Square Roots

Cube Roots

Percentages

Averages

LCM and HCF

Ratio and proportion

Profit and Loss

Time and Distance

Speed and Distance

Number Series

Time and Work

Mixture and charges

Simple Interest

Compound Interest

Mensuration

Permutation and combination (the basics)

Probability (Basics)

Data Interpretation (Basic)

Reasoning Ability: This section tests your basic logical skills. Syllabus of this section is almost identical to the IBPS Clerical level exam. For this section, you should prepare the following topics;

Verbal reasoning:

Basics

The series Completing

Classification

Ranking Test

Analogy

Word formation

Series

Directions

Alphabets

Coding and Decoding

Blood Relations

Statements and conclusions

Non verbal reasoning / Picture Question (basic level)

Classification

Series

Finding the missing figure