Activity I

Read the poem and answer the following questions given below.

Mirror, mirror by the sink,
Tell me what you truly think.
Am I fat or am I thin?
Will I lose or should I win?
Am I short? Perhaps too tall?
Are my ears a bit too small?
Is my nose exactly right?
Do I have an overbite?
Am I weak or super strong?
Is my hair too short or long?
Am I smart or rather dumb?
Can you say what I'll become?

- ◆ What does the speaker want the mirror to tell?
- ◆ What is the opposite of the word 'weak' used in the poem?
- ◆ The words 'tall' and 'small' ends with same sound. They are called rhyming words. Write one more rhyming pair.
- ◆ 'Can you say what I become?' Why does the speaker ask so?

Activity II

Ammu and Arun stepped into the mirror. Suddenly they found themselves in a forest. They were excited. A white horse with silver wings was standing in the field. It took them under a tree. Then they flew through a forest and reached a cottage. The man in the cottage showed the mirror which was exactly the one they found in the attic. They stepped into the mirror and reached home. It was really surprising. Ammu ran to her mother to share their experiences.

Write down the likely conversation between mother and Ammu.
