Section-A (Reading)

Q1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

“Do not go outside without your warm coat, Anil; it is very cold, and the snow lies thick on the ground. If you do, then you will catch cold, and then poor Anil will be ill.”

“But I feel quite warm.”

“Yes, you do now; but see what a large fire here in the house, out of doors there is no fire, and the cold wind blows; and if you have no warm coat on, you will feel cold.” But Anil thought he knew best, so he went outside with no coat on, and he caught a bad cold and cough. He was put to bed quite ill. Now Anil and his friends were supposed to play on the frozen pond the next day, but Anil was too ill to go. When he was in bed, Anil thought how silly he had been, and then he said to himself, he would try and do all that he was told when he got well.

Love your life because you are living it,
It doesn't matter what others think about it.
Love you friends because they are always around to help you,
What would have happened to your life if they weren't with you?
Love your family because they care for you,
Can you think of your future without a family living near by to help you?
Life is just a story that is being recited by god,
So whatever is happening is happening according to god.
Be thankful for the god, who made all these people available to help you,
Because without these people around,
our lives would have been ruined.

a) You love your life because _____

- i) you will die one day
- ii) you are very nice
- iii) you are living it
- iv) you have friends
