Section-A (Reading)

Q1.

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

“Do not go outside without your warm coat, Anil; it is very cold, and the snow lies thick on the ground. If you do, then you will catch cold, and then poor Anil will be ill.”

“But I feel quite warm.”

“Yes, you do now; but see what a large fire here in the house, out of doors there is no fire, and the cold wind blows; and if you have no warm coat on, you will feel cold.” But Anil thought he knew best, so he went outside with no coat on, and he caught a bad cold and cough. He was put to bed quite ill. Now Anil and his friends were supposed to play on the frozen pond the next day, but Anil was too ill to go. When he was in bed, Anil thought how silly he had been, and then he said to himself, he
