Activity - I

Read the passage and answer the questions given below.

There was a proud teak tree in a forest. He was tall and strong. There was a small herb next to the tree. The teak said, "I am very handsome and strong. None can defeat me." Hearing this the herb replied, "Dear friend, too much pride is harmful. Even the strong will fall one day." One day a strong wind blew. The teak stood firmly. The herb bowed low and the teak made fun of him.

Another day there was a storm in the forest. The herb bowed as usual. But the teak did not want to. The storm kept growing stronger. The teak could no longer bear it. He felt his strength giving away. He fell down. When everything was calm the herb stood straight.

It's saturday after noon now
The sun slowly going down
Painting my walls coloured
Like the face of a happy clown
Red and white and yellow
Bouncing on the green lawn
And making art of my home
Untill the sun at last is gone
Yet I still remember every tone.
