

REVISION TEST

UNIT TWO

30 Marks

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

No one can beat Hollywood when it comes to making films with animals in them. I remember films in my childhood-and there were quite a few of them-that had an Alsatian called Rin-tin-tin. This dog's acting was more impressive than a human's. Later, we got to see three or four other films with a collie called Lassie. It seemed that the director could make Lassie do just about anything. These trained dogs were famous stars in their own rights, and the money they earned was no less than what a real film star got. Their owners could easily make as much as a hundred thousand rupees from just one film.
