Activity II

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below

Long ago the sky was close to the earth. Men did not have to plant anything for their own food. When they were hungry, they just reached up and broke off a piece of the sky to eat. The sky was always tasty. But many people wasted the food. When people took more than they could eat, the sky became angry. The sky said, "You have wasted my gift of food. So I will go away". The people cried, "What will we eat! we might starve!" The sky said, "You have to learn how to plant crops in the ground. Work hard. Then you may learn not to waste the gift of nature". Then the sky went away.
