

Questionnaire

The questionnaire is a set of questions with a choice of answers usually framed for the purpose of interviews, surveys or statistics. In our examination question papers, by questionnaire it is intended to test the ability of the students to frame different questions to ask about a given context. Students should be aware of the structure of Wh-questions and Yes/No answer type questions. The Wh-question begins with a Question Word (QW) and the word-order is inverted as QW + Auxiliary + Subject + Verb...?. If the Question Word acts as the subject of the question, the word-order will be normal SVO as QW(subject) +(Aux) Verb+ Object...? The Yes/No answer question begins with an auxiliary verb and its word-order is Auxiliary + Subject + Verb...?

Q 1: Imagine many people responded to the advertisement placed in newspapers by Alfred Hitchcock. One of them didn't want any remuneration but wanted to get a chance to act in the film. Hitchcock invited him and asked many questions. Prepare six or seven likely questions.

1. Where are you from?
2. How many varieties of birds do you have?
3. How long have you been in the field of bird-training?
4. Who taught you the methodology of bird-taining?
5. Why do you like acting more than money?
6. Have you got any previous experience in acting?
7. Are you ready to take any role?

More practice questions from SCERT Question Pool

1. The District English Association conducted a chat show with the eminent director Adoor Gopalakrishnan. You got an opportunity to interview him as part of the programme. Prepare five questions that you would ask.
2. The Literary Club of your school has decided to invite Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie to interact with the club members. Being the convenor of the club, you are asked to prepare some interactive questions. Prepare the questions.

Prepared/compiled by Mahmud K Pukayoor (englisheduspot.blogspot.com)