SECTION - A (READING) (20 marks)

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow : (8 marks)

During emperor Akbar's reign, there was a poor man in Agra, who was thought to bring bad luck. People believed that if anyone looked at his face in the morning, they would have a bad day. "Get lost, you ugly fellow!" he would be cursed by one and all. "Hide your face before you kill someone with your evil eye!"

The emperor soon heard of this man's reputation and wanted to see him. The poor fellow who had not harmed a single person in his life, was brought to Akbar. Akbar took a look at him and asked him to be brought back in the evening.

That particular day was especially full and tiring day for the emperor and his courtiers. So many matters had to be attended to, that Akbar even forgot to eat. By the end of the day, the emperor was exhausted. To make matters worse, Akbar was informed that his favourite child, little Prince Salim, had fallen ill.

Then the emperor suddenly remembered that he had seen the face of the 'unlucky' man that morning. That was it. It was that man's entire fault, Akbar decided.

Akbar called his courtiers and told them that he was going to have the 'unlucky' man executed. All of them agreed immediately.

All except Birbal. Instead, Birbal let out a short laugh.

"What's the matter, Birbal?" asked the emperor. "You seem to find something funny!"

"Nothing, your majesty," replied Birbal.

"You say this man brings bad luck because you had to go without food ever since you saw him this morning. Look at his luck. Yours was the first face he saw today and he had to die because of it".

Akbar immediately realized his folly and rewarded Birbal for his wisdom.

- Why had King Akbar not eaten his food?
- What information did Akbar get about his favourite child?

2. Read the following passage carefully:

Have you thought of the fact that music is the one thing that has the power to make just about everyone happy? That is the magic mantra that we all have within us – the ability to hum along and listen to some great music. It's God's gift to humanity and it is free! The poorest person can hear it played all around him on radios and loudspeakers. The seven pure notes are as beautiful as the seven colors of soul into it. It fills you up with real happiness as rainbow and as deep as seven seas.

Music can take us to ecstatic heights. Put your heart and soul into it and it fills you up with real happiness. All kind of music is divine – and it does not matter whether you listen to happy, sad or joyful music. Any kind of music has the ability to uplift your mood and the power to recondition your mind.

We hear it first in a mother's womb as she listens to music or hums a tune. Then, when we are born, we hear our mother's and father's lullabies for us. We don't realize how quietly music becomes an integral part of our lives from nursery rhymes to the school parade there is music all around us. By the time we are in Junior School music has already submerged our soul. It becomes even more important when we enter our teens, no party, function is complete without it.

The way we listen to music changes as we grow up. In mid life we begin listening to more meaningful music –soulful, even devotional. Over the years you find yourself attuned to music that touches the mind, heart and soul. We become more compassionate and start looking at the world differently. It gives us solace, peace and loads of comfort. Music weaves an amazing umbrella of spiritual, metaphysical and cultural threads that uplift our spirit and makes us face life.

2.1 Answer the following questions in 30-40 words. (2x4=8 marks)

- a) How is music able to make everyone happy?
- b) Why does the type of music we listen to not matter?
- c) Where all do we listen to music?
- d) How does our choice of music change as we grow up?

2.2 Give the meaning of the word given by choosing the correct option: (1x4=4 marks)
