Subject: Complaint against insanitary conditions of our city

Sir,
With utmost respect, I'd like you to pay attention towards the utterly abominable condition of our city. The cleanliness can't be seen anywhere. A heap of garbage can be seen and stinking everywhere, the poor supply of water and dirty, yellow water can't be consumed the stinking lanes are choked with garbage and the drainage system is horribly affected. The sweepers do not sweep our area and moreover there is no place for garbage dumping.

Sir, people are suffering a lot and the present insanitary condition is making the situation worse. Many people have fallen sick and suffering from dengue, malaria, cholera etc. it's the time to wake up and do the need ful

I request you to take quick action the avoid dangerous situation further.
Expecting a quick action to be taken room.

Your sincerely

A very good morning to one and all present here. Respected Principal sir, teachers and all my dear friends. Today, I've got the opportunity to express my views on the topic 'Clean India Mission'. Cleanliness is the vital part of living a healthy and happy life. Without cleanliness we can't think of living a hale and hearty life. Diseases, sickness and various ailments entice our life like a curse. Unhygienic conditions make our life hell like as we are trapped by various infections and suffer a lot. I want to ask you a question; can you live happily in unhygienic condition? Can you feel happy in such tormenting situation?

I know, it can't be probable our PM Mr. Narendra Modi has also launched 'Swachh Bharat Mission' so friends, it's our duty to keep our country clean and tidy we need to start from our school campus and neighborhood. So I request you to keep our surrounding clean and healthy and live healthy and happy life.

The main components of yogic exercises are inverting, tumbling, compressing of body organs, deep breathing and conscious relaxation, not only does yoga's practice activate the parasympathetic nervous system to reduce stress and allow the body to heal itself, but the practice of yoga also improves the body's inherent healing abilities. Yoga is very beneficial to our health. Yoga decreases the level of stress hormone cortisol in the blood. The meditative practices of yoga help to reduce the responsiveness to the mind to stressors and lessen the intensity of the 'fight or flight' response. It enables us to avoid the stress response entirely. Practicing yoga also encourages one to lead a healthier life style. Yoga can be used as a therapy for several dangerous diseases.
