Test-IV: English Language

Directions (Q. 176-190): Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it. Certain words/expressions are given in bold in the passage to help you locate them while answering some of the questions.

A few weeks ago I ran into an old friend who is currently one of the mandarins deciding India's economic and financial policies. He asked, "And so, how is IIT doing?" As one can only indulge in friendly banter at such gatherings, I responded with, "Not so well actually. Your market-friendly policies have forced us to raise the fee, so we have 50% fewer PhD applicants this year. Not batting an eyelid, he shot back: "Obviously. Your PhD students don't have any market value." Taken aback, I shifted to a more serious tone and tried to start a discussion on the need for research in these globalised times. But he had already walked away. The last word on the imperatives of the 'market' had been spoken.

Actually, this view of higher education should not have surprised me. Worthies who look at everything as consumer products classify higher education as a 'non-merit' good. Non-merit goods are those where only the individual benefits from acquiring them and not the society as a whole. Multilateral agencies like The World Bank have too been pushing countries like India to stop subsidies to higher education.

When Ron Brown, former US commerce secretary visited India, a public meeting was organized at IIT Delhi. At that meeting I asked him: "I understand that since the 19th century all the way up to the 1970s, most land grant and state universities in the US virtually provided free education to state citizens. Was that good for the economy, or should they have charged high fees in the early 20th century?" He replied, "It was great for the economy. It was one of the best things that the US government did at that particular time in American history - building institutions of higher education which were accessible to the masses of the people. I think it is one of the reasons why our economy grew and prospered, one of the ways in which the US was able to close some of its social gaps. So people who lived in rural areas would have the same kind of access to higher education as people living in other parts of the country. It was one of the reasons for making America strong."

Our policy-makers seem unaware that their mentors in the US did not follow policies at home which they now prescribe for other countries. Ron Brown's remarks summarise the importance policy-makers in the US place on higher education as a vehicle for upward mobility, for the poorer sectors of their population. Even today, a majority of Americans study in state-run institutions. Some of these institutions, like Berkeley and the Universities of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin and Texas, are among the best in world. The annual tuition charged from state residents (about $ 5000 a year) is about a month's salary paid to a lecturer. Even this fee is waived for most students. In addition, students receive stipends for books, food and hostel charges. The basic principle is that no student who gets admission to a university should have to depend on parental support if it is not available.

Ron Brown's remarks went unnoticed in India. Every other day some luminary or the other opines that universities and technical education institutions should increase their charges and that such education should not be subsidized. Most editorials echo these sentiments. Eminent industrialists pontificate that we should run educational institutions like business houses. Visiting experts from the Bank and the IMF, in their newly emerging concern for the poor, advise us to divert funds from higher education to primary education.

 There are only three such pairs, viz DE, RT and AE.

3. 3;

A	U	G	M	E	N	T
└───┘		└───┘		└───┘

 There are only two such pairs, viz AE and EG.

From the above diagram it is obvious that Amit is now south-east from the starting point.
 5. 3; When the letters of the word ORIENTAL are arranged in alphabetical order we get the new order of letters as follows:
 A E I L N R T O

Thus the letter I and N satisfy this criteria. They are third and fifth respectively in either case—whether in the word or in the alphabetical order.

6. 4; Here specified letters are: D, E, I and R. The meaningful words formed with these letters are: DIRE and RIDE.

7. 1; My grandfather's only son ⇒ my father. Thus, we came to know that Suresh is the son of Meena's father. Hence, Suresh is the brother of Meena.

Note: Generally, in the question papers of examinations, grandfather and maternal grandfather are used for Dadaji and Nanaji respectively.

8. 2; P L E A D I N G
 +1 +1 +1 +1 -1 -1 -1 -1
Step I: Q M F B C H M F
Step II: C H M F Q M F B
Step III: F M H C Q M F B
 Similarly, the code for SHOULDER will be as follows:

 +1 +1 +1 +1 -1 -1 -1 -1
Step I: T I P V K C D Q
Step II: K C D Q T I P V
Step III: Q D C K T I P V

9. 1; Others are food crops while cotton is a cash crop.
 10. 3;

Letter:	G	O	N	E	R	B	A
Code:	7	6	2	8	5	9	3

Hence, the code for ROBE ⇒ 5698

11. 4; Except it others are vegetables.
 12. 5; Except it others are different types of fertilizers.
 13. 5; Except it others are non-living things.
 14. 4; After interchanging, the order of the digits of the number will be as follows:
 64278315. Hence, the second digit from the right end is 1.

15. 2; After the rearrangement of the letters, the new order of the letters is as follows:
New Order: A F M N O R R S T

Word: T R A N S F O R M
 It is obvious that the position of only one letter (N) will remain unchanged.

16. 1; Here the logic is very simple. Split the letters of the word into two equal parts. After that reverse the order of the letters of each part.

PORT	RAIT
------	------

TROP	TIAR
------	------

 Similarly,

BIRT	HDAY
------	------

TRIB	YADH
------	------

17. 3; Here 30 K 2 Q 3 J 6 T 5
 = 30 ÷ 2 + 3 × 6 - 5 = 15 + 18 - 5 = 28
 18. 4; Following table depicts the code of used letters in the two given words:

 20. 4; Here the five numbers are:
 843, 219, 325, 437 and 562
 When 2 is added to the middle digit of each of the above numbers, it becomes as follows:
 863, 239, 345, 457 and 582

When the positions of first and third digits of each number are interchanged, the numbers become as follows:
 368, 932, 543, 754 and 285

Now, when the numbers are arranged in ascending order their order becomes as follows:
 285, 368, 543, 754 and 932
 Hence, second number from top is 754 (a number formed by 437).

21. 2; Here specified letters are: E, L, T and N. The only meaningful word made from the above letters is LENT.
