

Class - 6

Social Science

Time : 2 hours

Instructions

1. 15 minutes cool off time is to be allotted for reading and understanding the activities.
2. Answer any SIX from the given EIGHT activities.
3. Try to answer all sub questions of the selected activities.

Activity – 1

- ♦ Alauddin Khalji and Muhammad Bin Tughluq were the important rulers of Sultanate Dynasty.
- A. What were the steps taken by Alauddin Khalji for the expansion of his country?
 - B. What were the important reasons that influenced Muhammed Bin Tughluq to shift the capital from Delhi to Daulatabad (Devagiri)?
 - C. Find out the chronological order of the dynasties that ruled Delhi during the Sultanate period.
 - a) Khalji Dynasty, Mamluk Dynasty, Tughluq Dynasty, Sayyid Dynasty, Lodi Dynasty.
 - b) Mamluk Dynasty, Khalji Dynasty, Tughluq Dynasty, Sayyid Dynasty, Lodi Dynasty.
 - c) Lodi Dynasty, Sayyid Dynasty, Tughluq Dynasty, Khalji Dynasty, Mamluk Dynasty.
 - d) Sayyid Dynasty, Khalji Dynasty, Tughluq Dynasty, Mamluk Dynasty, Lodi Dynasty

Activity – 2

- ♦ Social inequality existed in Medieval India. But there was progress in the field of knowledge.
- A. Prepare a note on social and economic inequalities that existed in Medieval India.
 - B. Which among the following is not an educational centre in Medieval India?
 - a) Banarās
 - b) Agra
 - c) Mahabalipuram
 - d) Kanchi

Activity – 3

"Harithakeralam" –
increased production in Agricultural sector.

- ♦ Did you notice the news report? Efforts to reclaim Kerala's agricultural heritage is on the way to success!

- A. What activities can we undertake for the self sufficiency of food in Kerala?
As a student what measures can you adopt for this in your school?
- B. Write any two schemes or projects of Kerala to reclaim our agro-based culture of Kerala.

Activity – 4

- ♦ Factors that involve in the process of production are called factors of production.
- A. Which natural resources are included in 'land' as a factor of production?
- B. "The organizer plays a vital role in the production process," Explain.
- C. Which among is not included in the service sector?
- Bank employee
 - Doctor
 - Farmer
 - Teacher

Activity – 5

- ♦ Geographical features are essential for the development of a country.

Geographical features of Maratha	Geographical features of Delhi
• Narmada and Tapti rivers	• River Yamuna
• Vindhya, Satpura mountain ranges	• Indo-gangetic plain
• Longest sea coast	• Aravalli mountain ranges

- A. How did the geographical features influence the development of Delhi and Maratha?
- B. What was the reason for the expansion of Chola influence to Malaysia and Indonesia? Choose the right statement.
- They had a powerful Army.
 - Malaysia and Indonesia were neighbouring countries of Chola Kingdom.
 - They had a powerful Navy.
 - They had good economic security.

Activity – 6

- ♦ The physiographical division of Kerala was done on the basis of the altitude.
- A. What are the main geographical features of Highland?
- B. Variety of crops are cultivated in midland. What are the reasons for the diversity of crops?
- C. Physiographically Kerala can be divided into Highland, Midland and Lowland. Considering these divisions which district is the odd one from others?
- Thiruvananthapuram
 - Alappuzha
 - Kollam
 - Malappuram

Activity – 7

- Travelogues help us to comprehend the socio-economic conditions of Medieval India.

Evil customs like the sati and child marriage prevailed

Social status was determined on the basis of caste, occupation and wealth

Those who engaged in agriculture and handicrafts belonged to the lower social strata.

- A. French traveller Tavernier who visited India during the Mughal period describes the social life of India as above. Compare the social life of Mughal period with the present social life. Prepare a note.
- B. Complete the table given below.

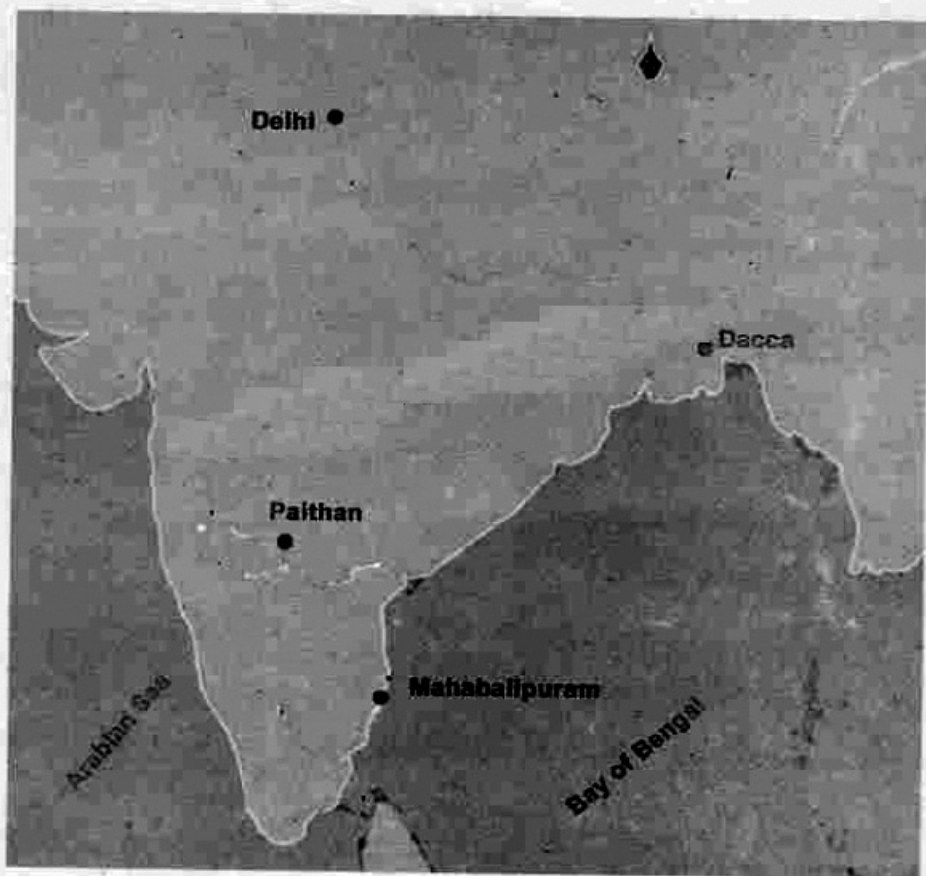

Traveller	Country
Nicolo Conti	_____
_____	Morocco

Activity – 8

- In Medieval India, towns were developed concentrating on production centres and markets.

- A. Write the names of two occupational groups which could be found in Karkhanas during the Medieval Period.
- B. Locate the major trade centres in the given map. (Madurai, Kollam, Ahmedabad, Agra.)

Activity – 8a

(Complete the map and return along with the answer sheet.)