XI 35 a) we are of course, most concerned with our country. India, unhappily, we have to find out how we can make them happier. we have to see what is good in our ways and customs and try to keep it, and whatever is bad we have to throw away. If we find anything good in other countries, we should certainly take it. educationobserver.com

b) Everybody wants to think well of himself and his country. But really there is no person who has not got some good and bad qualities.
In the same way there is no country which is not partly good and partly bad. we must take the good wherever we find it and try to remove the bad wherever it may be.

56. The poem was written by Vinayaka Krishna Gokak in the form of a dialogue between Mother India and the poet. In this poem, the poet want to present glorious pictures of the past and also wishes to paint India's natural beauty.

As Indians we can rightly be proud of our country's natural beauty, its rich cultural heritage, its ancient wisdom, its glorious freedom struggle and its Industrial progress. As the same time, we should not ignore the numerous ills affecting our mother land like poverty, disease, environmental degradation, ignorance, illiteracy, unemployment, caste and class conflicts and a hundred forms of exploitation. We should try to eradicate them as far as possible.

As the poet said our Mother India has to rewrite the book of our destiny, cancelling all our sorrow. Tomorrow should be clear dawn our nightmares should fled in bright future,

About the poem:

The poem described the patience of Mother earth as we humans repeatedly torture her. But she is very confident & sure that we can never shackle her.

Summary: The earth is telling the humans beings that they own her. But she is land & so she waits patiently. People shout & proclaim that the land is theirs. They buy lands drill holes in it & drive over her but still she waits patiently. Then some one plough her & plants seeds and she gives them fruits, grass, trees etc this result in people becoming joyous & they sing & dance.
