Assignment

- In Hollywood, animal actors were treated reverently just like the human actors. Justify the statement based on the passage and prepare a write-up.

Ans) In my opinion the new generation film makers depend on the digital cameras and other digital devices to shoot the film. So I feel they would be always comfortable and the work would be very easy. Moreover, they can utilize the virtual images instead of the real images. Instead of using a live animal they resort to a virtual animal. It will create and nurture artificially. The post production and the pre-production work could be done with minimum man power. The sound recording and other background work will be finished while the film is being shot.

Every animal in a Hollywood film is well-trained. It is not difficult to train a horse or a dog. It is made possible in Hollywood, when the creator of some of the best suspense films in the history of cinema.
