Assignment

1. It was the conflicting ideologies that led to cold war. Evaluate the statement.

Ans) The USA and the USSR that formed antifascist alliance during the second world war parted from each other after the war. The USA floated a new alliance of capitalist countries while the USSR led socialist nations. These two blocs capitalist bloc and socialist bloc that represented contradictory ideas continued their political and diplomatic wars. This enmity based on ideological conflict and diplomatic confrontations was called the cold war.

2. How did decolonization and cold war lead to the formation of Non-Aligned Movement?

Ans) America and soviet union which were united leaving Fascism during the second world war were again separated after the war. America became the new economic nation and led capitalists. soviet union formed socioeconomic growth of the nations.

A result of cold war was the differences in the ideologies and diplomatic confrontation of two regions which were enemies. They planned to help their own regions. When the whole world decided to be a part of any powerful region the countries in Asia and Africa stayed free. They are called third world nations. They feared the powerful regions may lead for threats and use of dangerous weapons may lead for third world war. Gradually Non-alignment was formed.
