

Pick out instances of visual and auditory images from the poem.

Visual	Auditory
Green sods	Sparrow- chirp
He nodded in a chair	Mavrone, Mavrone.
He knelt leaning on chair
Stars began to peep

Fr. Gilligan was in sleep. Suddenly he stood upright on the floor. He suddenly spoke out that "Alas! The man has died while I slept in the chair." At that time itself he get off his horse and rode into the man's house. Through the rocky lane and fen he reached the man's house. The man's wife opened the door and asked why did you come again. There asked father is the man dead. They replied yes and described the situation happened there. The father was amazed and thought god is with him.