

Salient features of Eastings

- North-south lines
- Value increases towards the east.
- Value of the eastings immediately left to the geographic features is considered for identifying a location.

Salient features of Northings :

- East - west lines
- Value increases towards
- value of northings immediately to the south of the feature in map is considered for identifying a location.