

1. Suppose you were in the audience of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's speech, what questions would you prepare?

- Ans) *
- * what are the struggles faced you during your childhood days?
 - * what was the main reason behind your success?
 - * was you sure about your success?
 - * what else effort should a child to do be successful like you?

■ Activity III (E-mail)

You get inspired by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's message and decide to communicate your thoughts and ideas to your friend who is studying abroad. Draft an e-mail to your friend.

From : mayaxx@gmail.com

Subject : Thoughts and ideas of Dr. Kalam

To : arya@yahoo.com

Dear Arya

Hope your studies are going on well.

I happened to go through Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam's message last night. I have been highly inspired by his noble words. He highlights the importance of having confidence for achieving your goal. He begins the message with a quote:

*When I wish upon a star,
Makes no difference who I am.
Anything my heart desires
Will come to me.*

We should always dream big in order to let our desires come true.

Next, he speaks of a young man hailing from a village. He was concerned about his lack of confidence. In reply to the young man's query, he recited another ancient poem, which tells us that each one of us possesses potentials, ideas and dreams. If we have confidence, we would be able to fly. Then he exhorts the readers to be 'unique'. Instead of imitating others, each one of us should develop one's own talents and make a name for oneself.

Best wishes!

Yours sincerely

Maya