

Prepare a speech on the occasion of
'YOUTH DAY' in the school

ms:-

Good morning everyone,

In this special occasion, I am here to tell a few words on the topic Youth day. Today's youths are tomorrow's leader. It is the famous words of our father of nation, Mahatma Gandhi. The future depends on what you do today. It mean that good foundation needed to make man, sensible in the society.

The future of country always lies in the hands of youths and grooming the youth of today is what will help country build good leaders for tomorrow. So, being with strong base.
