

1. Prepare a short note on the regional agitations in which Gandhiji participated after his arrival back in India.

Ans:-

- Gandhiji became familiar to the Indians after his involvement in addressing the problems of the Indian expatriates in South Africa.
- His protests in South Africa made him famous.
- Gandhiji was very popular because he lived among the common people and his food and among clothing in India.
- Common people found in Mahatma Gandhi a saviour who could solve their problems.

2. How Khilafat movement brought Hindu-Muslim unity?

Ans:- Gandhiji ensured active participation of Muslims in freedom struggle. He travelled across India with Khilafat leaders and propagated these. As a result, Hindu-Muslim unity was intensified.