

◆ Can a person be judged by appearance alone? Justify your response.

A person cannot be judged by appearance alone. For instance we all admire Abraham Lincoln. But physically, he was not a handsome person. Helen Keller who was deaf and blind has won everyone's admiration. There are dozens of such examples. If we had judged Stephen Hawking by appearance alone, the world would have lost the services of that great genius.