

1. Aunt Jane sadly reached the bus stop. While waiting for the bus she thought about the foolish way of living of Jack and Jill. Write the likely thoughts of Aunt Jane. 5

How foolish Jack and Jill are! Even after having a baby they are not responsible. Jack earns only six pounds a week. He foolishly spends seven pounds and eight pence a week. What will happen at the end? His baby is growing. There isn't considerable increase in his earnings. His expenses are shooting up. Both of them are least worried. This wrong tendency in the youth will lead them to untold miseries. It is high time they remembered 'Don't bite off more than you can chew'.

2. Aunt Jane when reached home decided to write a letter to Jill advising her to be more careful about the hire-purchasing schemes.

Write the likely letter of Aunt Jane. 6

Crotton Villa

New Hampstead

January 12, 2020

Dear Jill

Hope you, Jack and your baby are doing well. Here both of us are keeping fine.

Dear Jill, I write these lines to caution you both about the dangers of never-never. The terms of these schemes are very attractive. But very soon you will find it impossible to manage it. Jill, remember your baby is growing fast and your expenses are shooting up. But your income is not increasing accordingly. As a good aunt and benefactor, I advise you to be more intelligent and wise in your financial dealings.

Have a clear idea about your income. Try to save a little regularly and spend wisely. Be not a spend-thrift. May God bless you.

Love

Aunt Jane

3. Aunt Jane when returned home, her husband wanted to know whether Jack and Jill were happy. Write the likely conversation between them. 5

Husband: Jane, why did you return so soon?

Jane : Nothing, dear.

Husband: But you look sad, don't you?

Jane : Yes. Really sad.

Husband: Jane, tell me frankly. Why are you sad?

Jane : Their way of life frightens me.

Husband: You mean?

Jane : Jack has only an income of six pounds a week.

Husband: It is a good sum, isn't it?

Jane : But they spend seven pounds and eight and eight pence a week.

Husband: Wonderful! How?

Jane : They spend a lot on anything and everything on the never-never.

Husband: My God! Haven't you told them about the danger?

Jane : Yes. But no use. I'm afraid they are biting off what they can't chew.

Husband: You are perfectly correct. If I had been with you, I would have corrected them.