PROJECT TIGER

Read the passage from the memoir 'Project Tiger' and answer the questions that follow.

In a village called Notun Gram we found suitable bamboo grove to film the first meeting between Goopy and Bagha and the appearance of the tiger. Mr. Thorat reached the shooting location with the tiger. There were about twenty five people in the location. A few local people took our permission to go with us to watch how we tackled the tiger. The cage on the lorry was covered. When the cover was removed we were surprised to see not one, but two well-fed and robust tigers. 'I decided to play it safe,' Mr Thorat explained.' If one doesn't get it right, we can use the other.' We mounted the camera on its tripod and placed it so that it faced the bamboo grove. The audience was instructed to get behind the camera and to stand as far back as possible. We had to stay relatively close to the bamboo grove, and Goopy and Bagha too, had to be within yards of the camera, for it was necessary to have at least one shot that showed them together with the tiger.
