

What is State?

1. Prepare a note on state.

State is a universal and indispensable institution. It was formed after man started permanent settlement. State existed at all times, though different in form and structure.

Complete the following chart giving necessary information.

A. External

B. Right to take decisions on all internal issues.

Functions of a State

Flow chart

Functions of a state

Obligatory Functions

- Protection of boundary
- Maintain internal peace
- Protection of rights
- Implementation of justice

Discretionary Functions

- Protection of health
- Implement welfare programmes
- Provide transportation facilities
- Provide educational facilities