

WS-3-SS(E)

Thiruvananthapuram Educational District

Social Science (STD-10)

Work Sheet -3

Human Resource Development in India

1.Human resource development is the development of man's physical and mental abilities through education, health care, and training. What are the different levels of human resource development?

Individuals take efforts to develop their own skills.

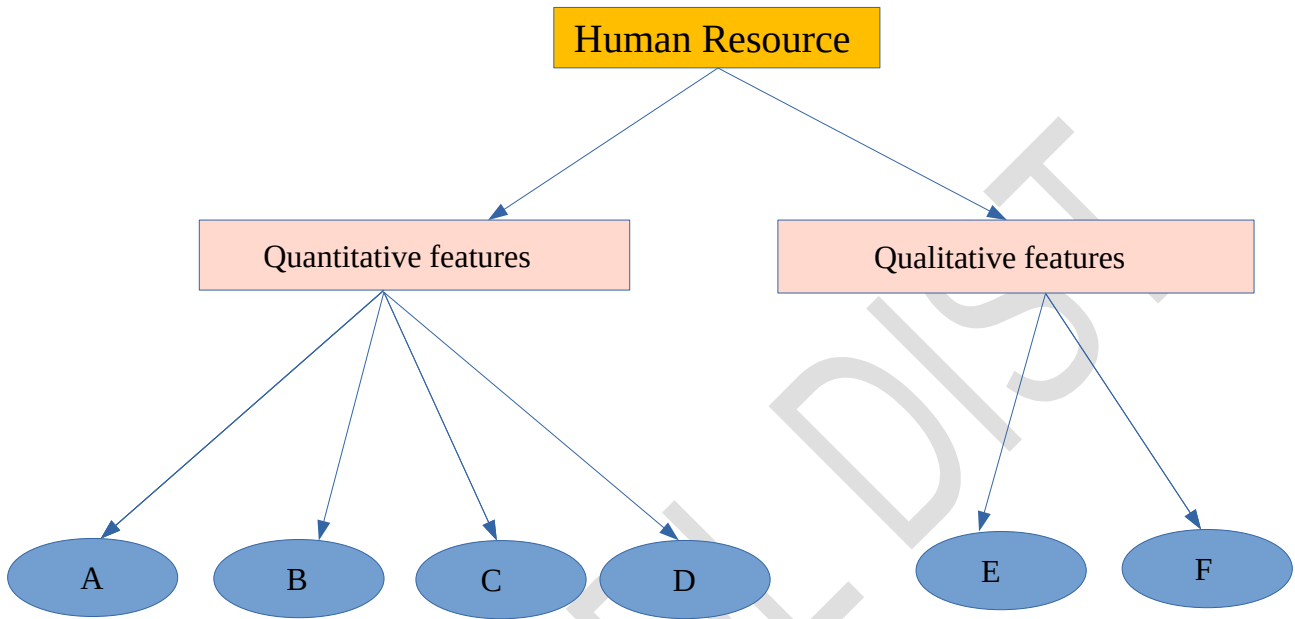

.....

.....

.....

2 Human resource has quantitative as well as qualitative features. Complete the chart.

3. Why are population studies conducted?

Informs the availability of human resource in a country.

.....

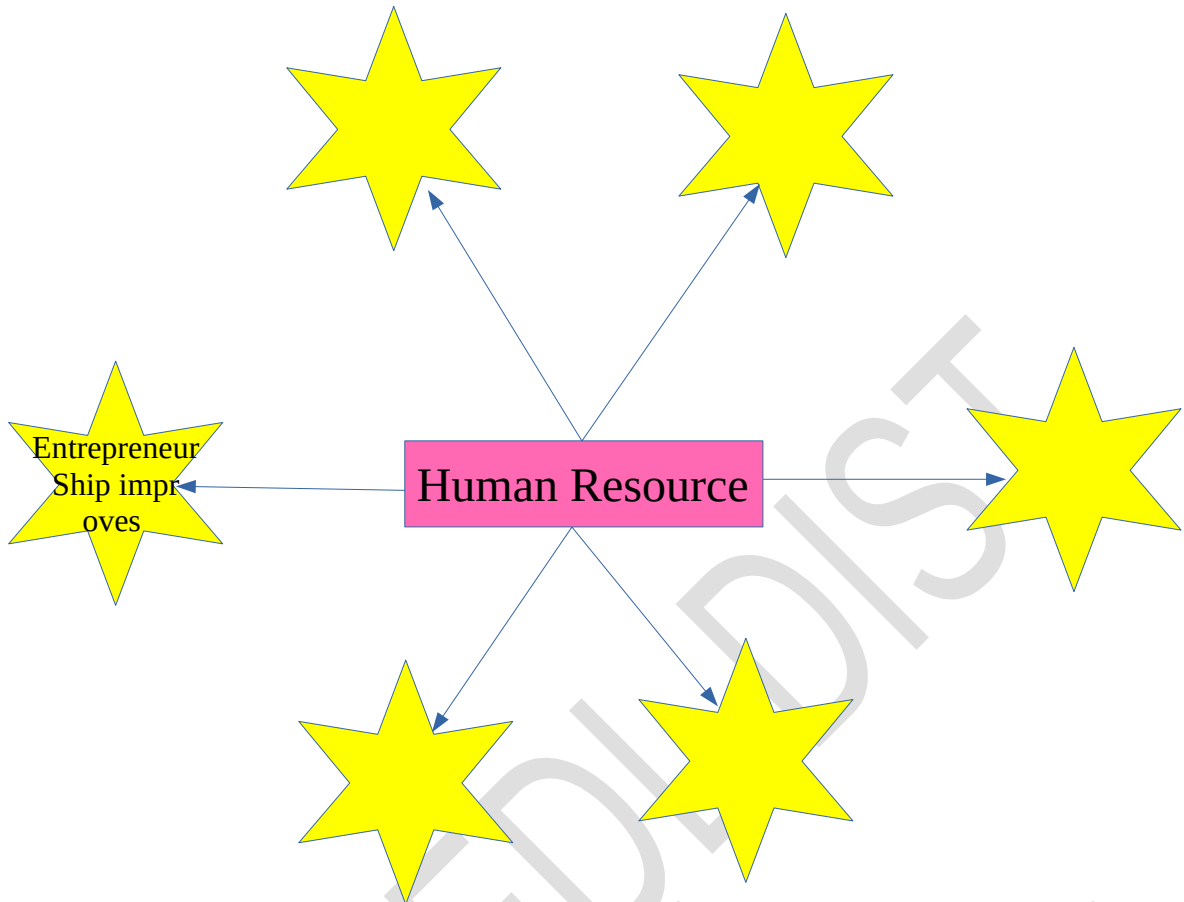

.....

.....

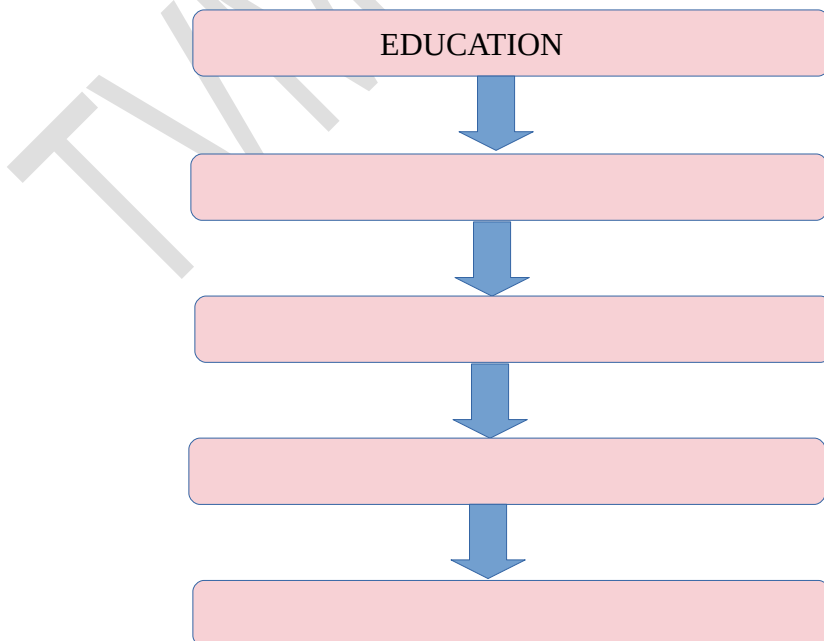

.....

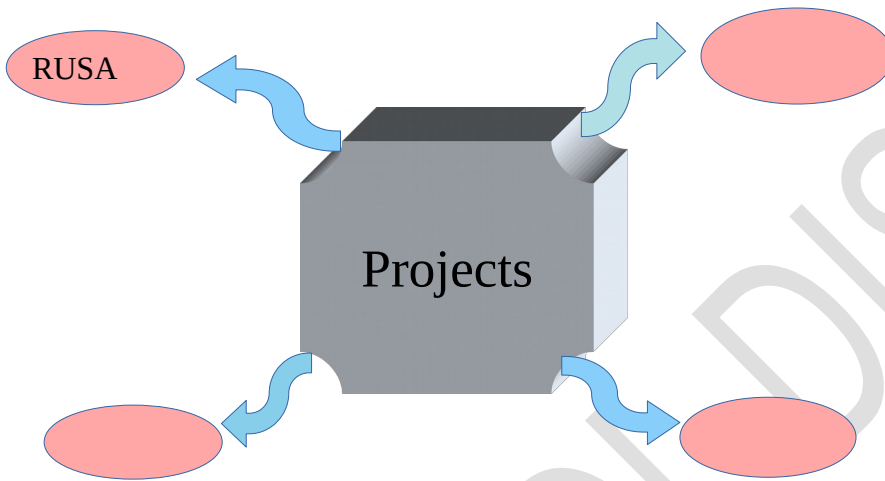

4. What are the advantages in developing human resource.

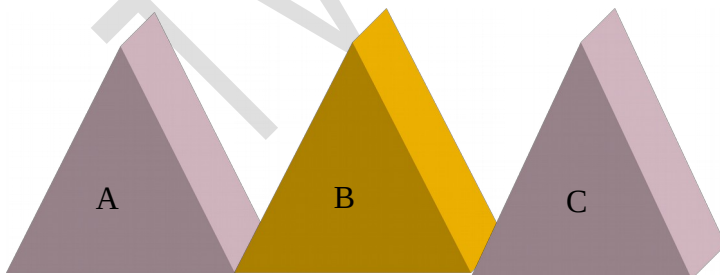

5 How education helps in the development of a country. Complete the flow chart.

6 What are the projects implemented in India to develop education and skills?

7 . What are the problems still exist in the education sector of India which need to be solved?

8. List the facilities to be ensured for healthcare.

Availability of nutritious food.

- *
- *
- *
- *

9. Find out the significance of public administration.

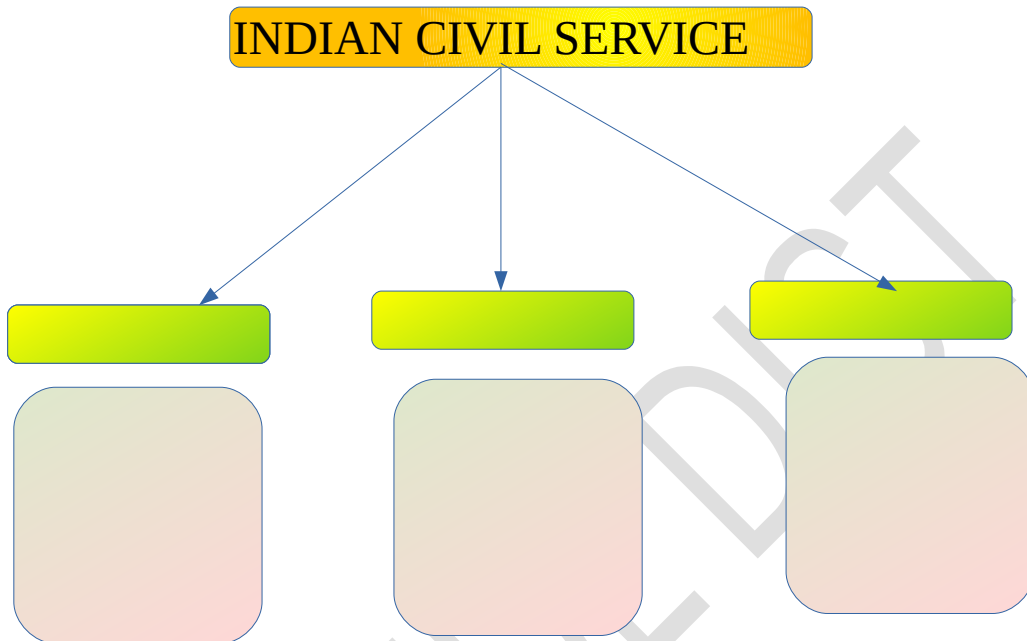

-
-
-
-

10. Find the features of bureaucracy.

- Hierarchical Organisation
-
-
-
-

11 Prepare a chart showing the classification of Indian civil service.

12. E-governance is the use of electronic technology in administration. What are the benefits of E-governance ?

- ➔ Can receive service with the help of information technology.
- ➔
- ➔
- ➔

13 Compare Union Public Service Commission (U P S C) and State Public Service Commission (P S C)

UPSC

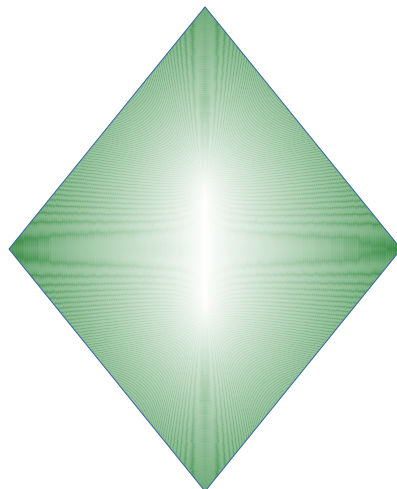

PSC

UPSC

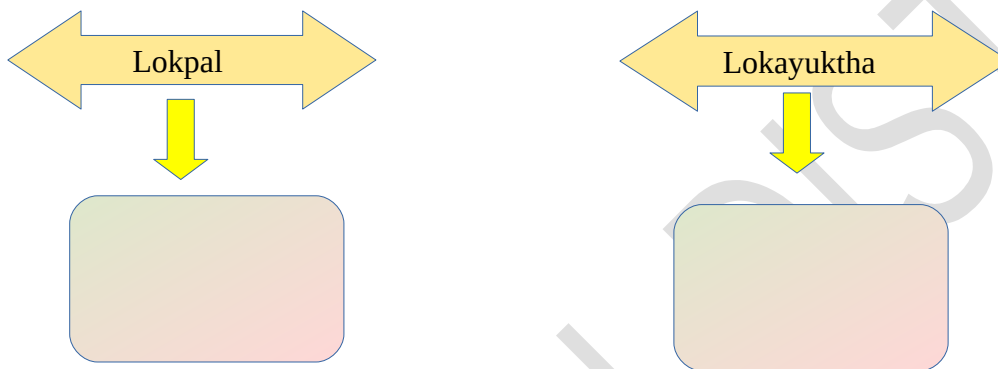

PSC

14 Lokpal and Lokayukta are institutions constituted to prevent corruption at administrative, bureaucratic and political levels.
explain

15 Match the Following

	A	B
1	Central Vigilance Commission	2005
2	Right to information Act	Akshaya centre
3	Ombudsman	Information Commission
4	Right to Information	1964
5	E-Governance	Banking