Activity I Read and answer

Raju got up early in the morning. He was very happy. The nature club of the school had planned a study tour on that day. The sky was cloudy when they reached the place. He was thrilled to visit the beautiful Neelamala forest. "Listen to the chirping of birds. How sweet it is!", his friends shouted. Suddenly it started raining. They took shelter under a big tree. They saw a mother monkey and its baby on the tree. The mother was holding the baby close to her body. Raju felt sorry and said, "See, they are homeless". Holding his hand, the teacher said, "This tree is their home. Allow them to live here happily. Let's move without disturbing them".

Answer the following questions.

1) Why did Raju get up early in the morning?

2) Pick out the word from the passage which means 'sound of a bird'

3) Mother monkey held its baby close to her body. Why?

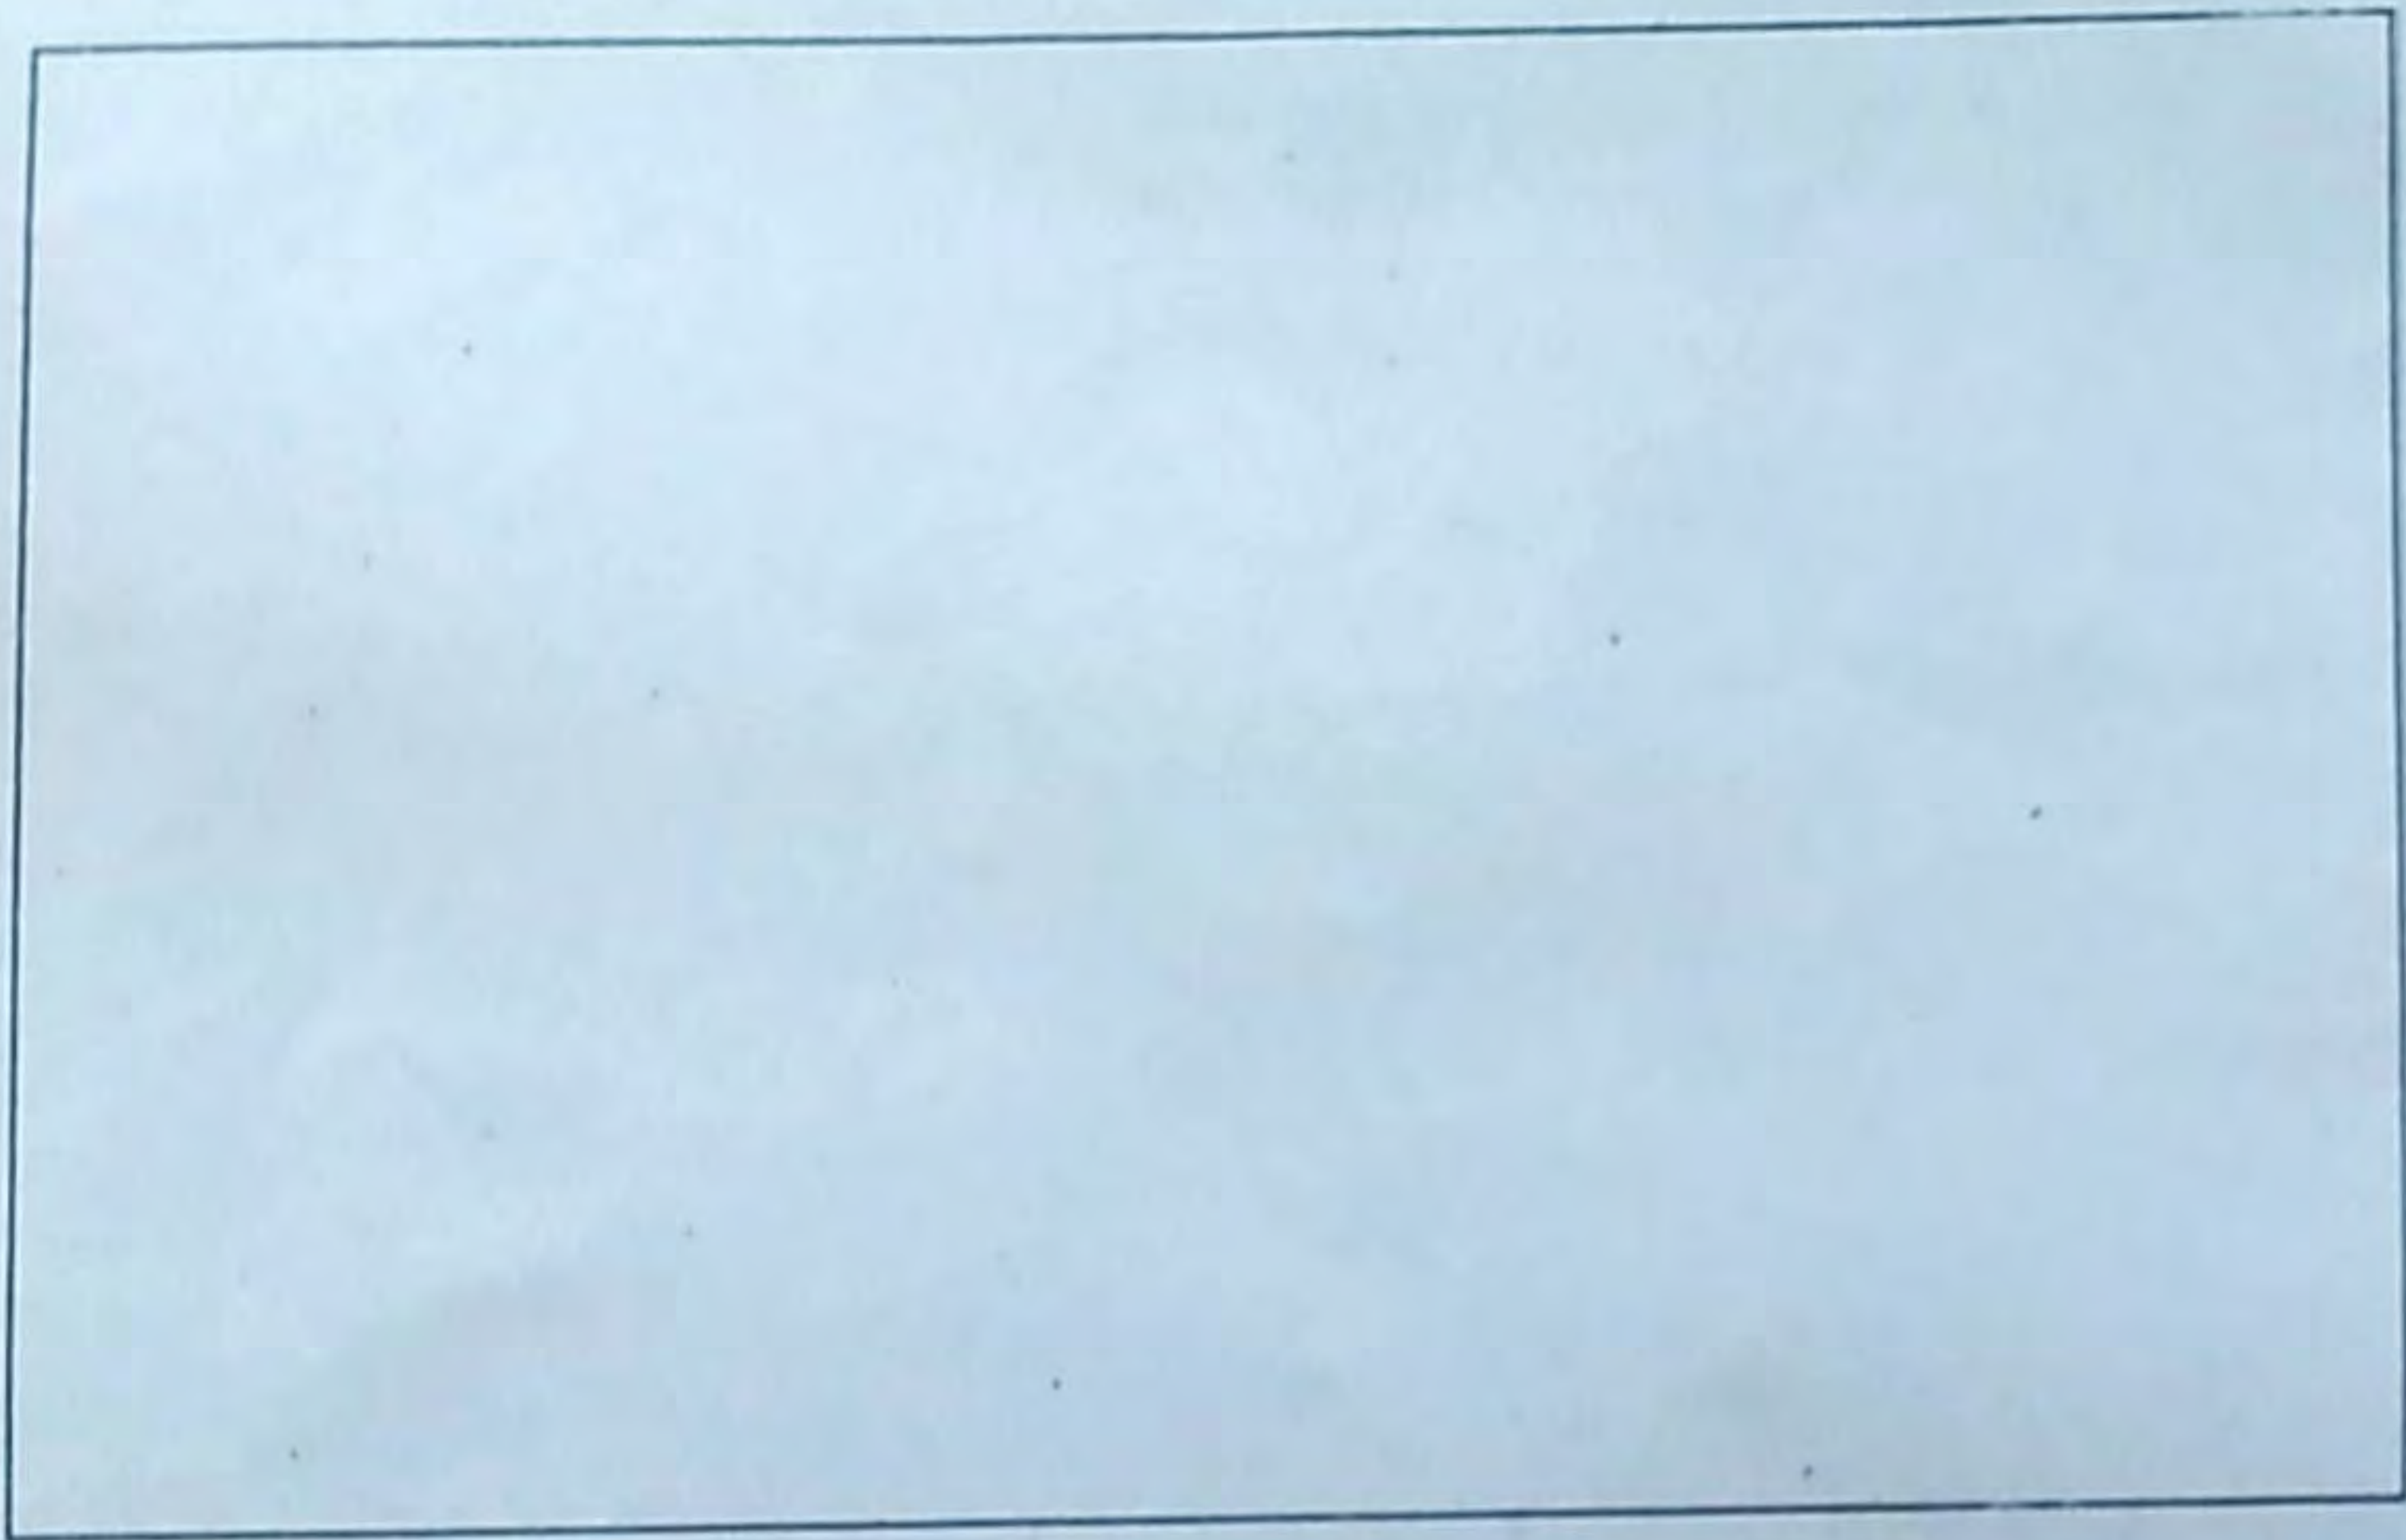

4) What is the message of the story ?

5) Give a suitable title to the story.
