PREPARE THE NARRATIVE

Satyajith Ray wanted to shoot his new film "Goopy Gyne Bagha Byne" with a trained tiger. He approached the Bharath Circus to arrange a tiger to use in his film. He asked the permission of the manager. He gave permission to use it. Then they made arrangements with the ringmaster Mr. Thorat to bring the tiger.

Ray and his team found a suitable bamboo grove in Notun Gram, a small village. Mr. Thorat reached the village with two well-fed tigers. It was brought in the lorry specially designed to bring them. He faced greater challenges to shoot the film with the tiger. He understood that it was difficult to shoot the film with a tiger. It has to play a great role in the film. Ray was doubtful of the success of the film.

When the cage was opened, the tiger jumped at the crowd with a loud roar. The whole village came to see shooting. All the people ran away. The tiger behaved improperly. It was a difficult task for them. Nothing went right as they planned. Luckily the tiger calmed down but the camera had failed. When the tiger became normal, they took the whole scene again.

INFORMAL LETTER

Goa

14th September 2020.

Dear Rafel,

How are you? Hope you are fine. I am writing this letter with a special purpose. I want to share with you an exciting experience. I am busy with my new film 'Goopy Gyne, Bagha Byne'. I had a tough time with a 'tiger scene' in the film. I had to get a trained tiger to shoot the film. I was happy when I got the tiger to shoot the film. The tiger jumped with loud roar and charged at the crowd. Our camera did not work well. We shot the scene again. It was a great shooting.

Hope to meet you soon.

Yours lovingly,

DIARY

Satyajith Ray writes the diary entry expressing his feelings and emotions after shooting his film with much pain and difficult.

20th August 2021.

It is an unforgettable day in my life. Shooting the film with a trained tiger was difficult. We managed well. We took much pain to shoot the film. I was not sure about the success of my film “Goopy Gyne Bagha Byne’. The tiger did not behave properly. It charged at the crowd. Mr. Thorat was helpful. He worked hard. Our shooting was successful. We are happy now. God is great.
