10:30pm

It is an unforgettable day in my life. I was glad to see animals and birds there. I got a new friend. It was a small grey squirrel. I am giving biscuits and cakes to eat. I am enjoying my friendship with it. It is not afraid of me. I am very happy. It is my close friend. I love it a lot.

Diary - Adventures In A Banyan Tree

And amongst the wool were the three baby squirrels - all of them white! The boy couldn't stop wondering about the white squirrels. If he scribbled down this unforgettable sight in his diary, how would it be?

10:30pm

What a wonderful sight! My white rat has become father of three little white squirrel babies, I've never seen white squirrels before. Even my grandpa hasn't seen such wonderful creatures. My grandpa is a nice man He loves nature and its creatures. I know he loves me too. I'm sure he bought the white rat for me. How many varieties of creatures are there in nature! We should do everything to protect the nature and its creatures. I m proud of my grey squirrel, white rat and the white baby squirrels. I will bring all my friends here and show them these wonders of nature.

Diary - Snake And The Mirror

The doctor in the story 'The Snake and the Mirror' was very much frightened after his encounter with the snake. He writes his feelings in his diary. What would be the diary entry ?

10:30pm

Oh God! What a horrible night it was! Strange noise was nothing new in my room. So, I didn't take it serious when I heard a thud. Who thought it could be a cobra? When it coiled around my arm, I was literally turned to a stone. I knew death lurked three inches away from my face. It was my foolishness that I didn't keep any medicine in my room. If the snake had struck me, what would I have done? Thank God. what I feared didn't happen. The snake left me and slithered towards the mirror. What made it turn away from me? Perhaps my desperate and silent call to God? It was a snake taken with its own beauty. I would say God saved me in the form of a mirror. When the cobra saw its own beauty in the mirror, it forgot everything and left me. Thank God!

Diary - Snake And The Mirror

Imagine the doctor moved to a new house. He feels safe and happy there. He writes in his diary about the horrible experience he had the previous night. Prepare the likely diary entry.

10:30pm

Thank God! I m safe and happy now in this new house neat and comfortable. I have here good neighbours too. I should be thankful to my friends for arranging this house for me. Last night I met death face to face! I can't ever forget those moments in my life. When I heard the sound of something falling down I never thought it could be a cobra. What could I have done if it had bitten me? I didn't have any medicine to use in case of an emergency. Luckily, the snake was a beauty-conscious one. When it saw its reflection in the mirror, it forgot everything and left me. It was a cobra taken with its own beauty. Really God saved me in the form of a mirror! I will keep a mirror here too.

Diary - Project Tiger

Satyajith Ray was very disappointed when he realized that his first shooting attempt went in vain. He expressed his feelings in his diary. Prepare the likely diary entry.

10:30pm

What a bad luck! All our efforts went in vain. I had taken great pains to get a trained tiger and to shoot the scenes. When the tiger misbehaved we thought we would fail in our attempts. But the animal behaved well soon. Then, who thought the camera would cheat me! Anyway, all the scenes I've to shoot again. I'll speak to Mr. Thorat. I hope he will cooperate. I have to look for a new location. A nearer place will be better. No need to be disappointed in failures. Hard work will bring success. I'll work till I succeed.

Diary - Project Tiger

Imagine Mr. Satyajit Ray makes a diary entry after his successful completion of his shoot at Boral.

10:30pm

Finally thank God! I could fulfill my dream. Really one of the most memorable shoots of my life... can't believe that we could get it absolutely correct this time. And that too exactly the way I wanted. But this time the tiger was really at its best... really very well behaved. I thought during the shoot my heart would jump out through my mouth..the moment it roared...and would pounce on the crowd! But thanks to Mr. Thorat, really a great trainer with great training skills... I couldn't ever imagine that the tiger who roared so loud, can be so obedient and obey its master's command. And finally the camera too proved its true worth and did an excellent job. I was even more excited to see the joy on each of my crew member 's faces... All were so happy and on top of the world. I sincerely hope my dream project will be a success. Really I am grateful to God for today's success.. And I sincerely hope that the tiger becomes a lucky charm for me...and hit the box office...thanks a lot GOD! Now I can sleep peacefully.

Diary - The Best Investment I Ever Made

Imagine that Mr. John, after meeting the narrator for the second time, writes his diary. What would be the possible diary entry? Write it down.

Monday, 18 April, 2021

10:30pm

How can I ever forget this day! Today I met the man who gave me this life 25 years back. God brought us together on the same ship. At the very first glance I recognized him. But I was too shy to approach him. My wife encouraged me to meet and talk to him. When I told Dr. AJ Cronin about my charity work, he showed interest to talk; but he couldn't still recognize me. Then I whispered in his ears about the foolish attempt of suicide that had committed 25 years before, he could distinguish me. What a play of fate! For 7 pounds 10 shillings I tried to take my life, like an angel this man came, saved me and gave me that paltry sum, which made me a new man. Now putting an end to my 25 years' search, God brought him in front of me again. Oh God, You're Great! This is the happiest day in my life!

Diary - The Best Investment I Ever Made

Mrs John was very excited on the day her husband Mr John met the doctor on board the ship. She writes her feeling in her diary. What would the diary entry be? Write it.

Monday, 18 April, 2021

10:30pm

An unbelievable coincidence! John had told me about the doctor. Never expected to meet him on board the ship. He didn't recognise John, but John could identify him at the very first sight. When John reminded him of the incidents he at once remembered everything. He was full of praise when he came to know that we have dedicated our life for the welfare of boys and girls from the slum. He remarked it was the best investment he had ever made. An unforgettable experience!

Diary - The Best Investment I Ever Made

The young man felt so happy after regaining his life. Prepare his diary.

10:30pm

Thank god! I got my life back. How silly I was trying to end myself only for Seven pounds 10 shillings. Now I realize the value of god gifted life. I am sure the doctor, the surgeon and the landlady are the agents of God. What If they hadn't come on time? I just cannot think. It is all because of my uncontrolled and lavish life. I wasted everything in vain. I should thank the landlady for allowing me to stay here. The sergeant is also great for not reporting my case. But the doctor has given me a rebirth. I have learnt a lesson. Here after my life is for people like me who need to be healed in mind and body.

Diary - The Best Investment I Ever Made

Diary of A J Cronin or the Sergeant of police or landlady

Monday, 18 April, 2021

10:30pm

Oh an unforgettable day! Today I feel my life has got a new meaning. So happy that I could save the young man. Poor fellow. He tried to end himself for seven pounds ten shillings. He should never have forgotten that life on earth is the most valuable gift. How pitiful is his condition! Without work or money. Can I help him? Yes I shall try my level best. Why are these young men doing all these? Addicted to drugs and lost in bad company they live without any commitments to the society. we have to do something to save these people. Anyway thank god for bringing me here on time.
