2. This time is to be used for reading the question paper.
3. You are not supposed to write anything during the cool-off time.
4. Attempt the questions according to the instructions.

Questions 1--5: Read the excerpt from 'Project Tiger' and answer the questions that follow. (Each question carries one mark.) (1x5 = 5)

From nowhere appeared a little dwarf, followed by another man carrying the dog-skin. Then to my perfect amazement, the dwarf went down on all the fours on a chalk mark on the floor, just like an animal, and the dog-skin was draped over him. Then he crawled from one mark to another, and the cameraman got busy with the lights. It finally dawned upon me that this dwarf was paid to be the dog's stand-in.

1. Satyajit Ray witnessed a strange incident in film shooting. What was it?
2. What was the dwarf wrapped over with?
3. What was the cameraman doing?
4. How did the dwarf move from one mark to another?
5. Find out the expression from the passage that means 'a substitute'.

Questions 6 – 9: Read the lines from the poem 'A Girl's Garden' and answer the questions that follow. (Each question carries one mark.) (1x4 = 4)

A neighbour of mine in the village
Likes to tell how one spring
When she was a girl on the farm, she did
A childlike thing.

One day she asked her father
To give her a garden plot
To plant and tend and reap herself
And he said, 'Why not?'

In casting about for a corner
He thought of an idle bit
Of walled-off ground where a shop had stood,
And he said, 'Just it.'

6. Who is the speaker in the poem?
7. What did the girl ask her father?

8. Where did the father want his daughter to grow the garden?
9. Write the rhyme scheme of the first stanza of the poem.
10. Read the lines from the song 'Blowin' in the Wind' by Bob Dylan and attempt a brief appreciation focusing on the theme, imagery and language used by the writer. (5)

How many roads must a man walk down
Before you call him a man?
How many seas must a white dove sail
Before she sleeps in the sand?
Yes, and how many times must the cannon balls fly
Before they're forever banned?

The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
The answer is blowing in the wind.

Yes, and how many years can a mountain exist
Before it is washed to the sea?
Yes, and how many years can some people exist
Before they are allowed to be free?
Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head
And pretend that he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
The answer is blowing in the wind.

Questions 11 -15 : Read the following story and answer the questions given below. (Each question carries one mark.) (1x5 = 5)

Emperor Akbar was in the habit of putting riddles and puzzles to his courtiers. He often asked questions which were strange and witty. It took much wisdom to answer these questions. Once he asked a very strange question. The courtiers were dumbfounded by his question. Akbar glanced at his courtiers. As he looked, one by one the heads began to hang low in search of an answer. It was at this moment that Birbal entered the court. Birbal who knew the nature of the emperor quickly grasped the situation and asked, "May I know the question so that I can try for an answer". Akbar said, "How many crows are there in this city?" Without even a moment's thought, Birbal replied, "There are fifty thousand five hundred and eighty nine crows, my lord". "How can you be so sure?" asked Akbar. Birbal said, "Make your men count, My Lord. If you find more crows it means some have come to visit their relatives here. If you find less it means some have gone to visit their relatives elsewhere". Akbar was pleased very much by Birbal's wit.

11. What sort of questions did Akbar put to his courtiers?
12. What was the strange question raised by Akbar?
13. Why did the courtiers hang their heads low?
14. Why did Birbal give the answer without even a moment's thought?
