2. Read the following passage carefully :

Tigers live in different parts of Asia and Siberia. The tiger and the lion are the biggest animals in the cat family, and the great Bengal Tiger is bigger than the lion. Tigers are powerful and strong animals. A male tiger is about ten foot long. Its coat is yellow and black. If you think about it, you will soon know why its coat has two colours. The long forest grass dries to a yellow-colour in summer, and the trees throw dark shadows on the ground. When the tiger moves through the forest, and through the long grass to the river bank, his coat is almost the same colour as the grass and the shadows around him. The tiger has strong teeth and claws. When the tiger walks, it pulls in its claws because it wants to keep them sharp.

Now, answer the following questions :

5 × 1 = 5

- (a) When does the long grass dry to yellow colour ?
- (b) Where do tigers live ?

Choose the correct answer from the choices given below :

- (c) The tiger can be considered a _____ animal.
- (i) clever and intelligent
 - (ii) colourful and short
 - (iii) powerful and strong
- (d) The tiger and the lion are considered to be the biggest animals of the cat family because
- (i) the Bengal tiger is not bigger than the lion.
 - (ii) all the other animals are smaller than lions.
 - (iii) all the other members of the cat family are smaller than them.
- (e) Which of the following is a true statement ?
- (i) Bengal tigers are as big as lions.
 - (ii) All the tigers are about ten foot long.
 - (iii) Tiger's claws remain sharp because they pull them while walking.

Read the following passage carefully :

Long ago there lived in a forest a pride of lions with several cubs. One of the cubs was always curious to know about things. One day he saw a butterfly and started chasing it. The little cub ran and ran but was unable to catch the butterfly. He had become too tired to run. He also realised that he had lost his way. Before he knew anything he had fallen asleep.

When the lion's cub woke up, he found himself in a strange company. He was surrounded by a flock of sheep. There were several lambs too for him to play with. He seemed to like the company and soon was accepted by the sheep.

Now, arrange the following jumbled sentences in a sequential & meaningful order. 5

- (a) It saw a butterfly and ran after it.
- (b) Many lions were living with their cubs in a forest.
- (c) It became one among them and played with them.
- (d) One cub wanted to know about the things around.
- (e) It was tired and slept but when he woke up he was in the middle of many sheep and lambs.
