Questions 1 - 6. Read the excerpt from ‘The Best Investment I Ever Made’ and answer the questions that follow. Each question carries one score. (6x1=6)

I was a young doctor at the time and had just set up a practice in a working-class district of London. On a foggy November night, towards one o'clock, I was awakened by a loud banging on the door. Hurriedly, I threw on some clothes and went downstairs. It was a sergeant of police, in dripping helmet and cape, mistily outlined on the doorstep. A suicide case, he told me abruptly, in the lodgings around the corner-I had better come at once.

We walked the short distance in silence, even our footsteps muffled by the fog, and turned into the narrow entrance of an old building. As we mounted the creaking staircase, my nostrils were stung by the sick-sweet odour of illuminating gas. On the upper storey the agitated landlady showed us to a bare little attic where, stretched on a narrow bed, lay the body of a young man.

1. What awakened the doctor on a foggy November night?
2. Why did the sergeant seek the doctor's help?
3. What was the landlady's reaction to the incident?
4. What did the sergeant and the doctor see in the attic?
5. Pick out the word from the passage which means 'to climb.'
6. Identify the noun phrase in the subject position from the sentence given below.

I did not know what to say, my mouth

had no way

with names,

my eyes were blind.

And something started in my soul,

fever or forgotten wings,

and I made my own way,

deciphering

that fire,

and I wrote the first faint line,

faint, without substance, pure

nonsense,

pure wisdom

of someone who knows nothing,
