39. Read the lines from the poem Mother, A Cradle to Hold Me by Maya Angelou.

It is true

I was created in you.

It is also true

That you were created for me.

I owned your voice.

It was shaped and tuned to soothe me.

Your arms were molded

Into a cradle to hold me, to rock me.

The scent of your body was the air

Perfumed for me to breathe.

Mother,

During those early, dearest days

I did not dream that you had

A large life which included me,

For I had a life

Which was only you.

I feared if I let you go

You would leave me eternally.

You smiled at my fears, saying

I could not stay in your lap forever.

Without warning you left me,

But you returned immediately.

But relief did not rest with me easily.

You left again, but again returned.

Each time you re-entered my world

You brought assurance.

Slowly I gained confidence.

(Hints : soothe – to comfort; molded – shaped; cradle – baby bed; eternal – ever lasting)

Now, compare the poem with Any Woman by Katharine Tynan.

(Hints : theme, message, style, tone, poetic devices, etc.)
