3. Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions :

The teacher was obliged to begin the story of a bison and a tiger, and then he passed on to "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" and "Aladdin's Lamp". The boy listened, rapt and ordered. "I want to hear the story of the bison again. It is good...". The teacher was short of breath. (Scores : 4)

4. Edit the following letter of recommendation correcting the mistakes, if any.

Dear Sir,

The purpose of this letter was to provide a character reference to Mr. Ram whom I have known as a colleague and a friend for a period of five years. I believe I were in a position to provide you with a pretty accurate assessment of his character.

As an employee, he has been very hardly working and highly committed to his job. He has also been very outgoing and always willing to help others. I would conclude saying that Mr. Ram is a fine, well-balanced person with an abundant of positive qualities.

Yours Sincerely,

Sankar

19. Read the following poem and compare it with "Any Woman" by Katharine Tynan.

The Sad Mother

Sleep, sleep, my beloved,
without worry, without fear,
although my soul does not sleep,
although I do not rest.

Sleep, sleep and in the night
may your whispers be softer than a leaf of grass,
or the silken fleece of lambs.

May my flesh slumber in you,
my worry, my trembling,
In you, may my eyes close and my heart sleep.
