45. Some people think that the aim of education is merely to give knowledge. Those people want students to read books, and do nothing else but add to their knowledge. Others believe that knowledge alone is not enough ; only that which enables a person to earn his / her living can be called education. Such people think that bread is more important than anything else. Still others believe that education should aim solely at making good citizens and good patriots.

All these people see only one of the several purposes of education. As a matter of fact, education should aim at all these three things together. It should give persons knowledge, make them self-reliant and able to serve others. Education should not produce citizens who, while they love their own freedom, take away the freedom of others. It should produce persons who love their own country but also who do not want to harm other countries.

a) What kind of citizens should education produce ?

b) What do some people think to be the aim of education ?
