I. Read the following Passage and answer the questions that follow:

In 2009, the Indian government announced a contest to create a symbol for the rupee. It was proposed that the symbol would reflect and capture Indian ethos and culture. The symbol created by Dr. Udaya Kumar was selected. The symbol is derived from the Devanagari letter '₹' with an additional horizontal line. The parallel lines at the top with white space between them refer to the tricolour and also depict the 'equal to' sign which symbolises the nation's desire to reduce economic disparity. Before the adoption of the symbol, the most commonly used symbols for the rupee were Rs, Re or if the text was in an Indian language, then an appropriate abbreviation in that language. The Official rupee symbol was adopted on October 11, 2010.
