UNSEEN PASSAGE

(1) Read the passage given below and answer the following questions. (5*1=5)

A. Read the given passage carefully and answer the questions given below:

Bachendri's story stands as an example of how going against your family's wishes can be hard but important from time to time. Raised surrounded by the Himalayas towering around her hometown, she intended to climb it one day, and focused on becoming a professional mountain climber. Moreover, she received a lot of discouragement for being a girl trying to take on such a physically challenging path. This only fuelled her passion; she was selected to be part of an expedition to the top of Mt. Everest. She braved being buried in snow, fierce icy winds and even losing sensation in her toes. She was one of the few who finally made it to the top creating history in being the first Indian women to reach the summit.

HANDWRITING

(1*2=2)

Though women constitute the half of the world's population still they are far from getting their due. They are discriminated against and are devoid of even basic necessities in many countries. They are not sent to schools and are not given nutritious food. They bear the responsibility of household work and sometimes even up bring their siblings; this discrimination is done because society thinks that they are physically not strong and need to be protected.
