Question 6-9. Read the following extract from the poem ‘My Grandmother’s House’ and answer the following questions. (1x4 = 4)

There is a house now far away where once
I received love.....That woman died,
The house withdrew into silence, snakes moved
Among books, I was then too young
To read, and my blood turned cold like the moon.
How often I think of going
There, to peer through blind eyes of windows or
Just listen to the frozen air,
Of in wild despair pick an armful of
Darkness to bring it here to lie
Behind my bedroom door like a brooding
Dog.....

6. Which house is mentioned in the first line?
7. What happened to the house after the death of grandmother?
8. How are the eyes of the windows described?
9. Pick out an instance of simile from the lines above.

Questions 10-14. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions that follow.

(1 x 5=5)

Some frogs were travelling through woods and two of them accidentally fell into a pit. The other frogs which were safe upside understood how deep the pit was and saw no hope for the frogs to escape out of it. Both of these frogs started trying to get out of the pit but failed many times. The frogs on the safe side shouted at them to give up the pain of trying as it was not possible. Eventually, one frog heard the other frogs and decided to stop trying and fell down to death. However, the other frog went on trying and at last managed to reach the top.

The other frogs asked him, "Did you not hear us?" He explained that he was deaf and thought other frogs were encouraging him to get out. Some people around you may ask you to be on a safer side always and stop trying and taking risks. However, there is no gain without pain. So try hard to achieve success in life despite what life offers you.

10. Where were the frogs travelling through?
11. What did the frogs on the safe side shout?
12. What was the explanation given by the frog that reached safely to the top of the pit?
13. How can one achieve success in life?
14. Give a suitable title for the story.
