Activity V - Poem

Read the poem carefully and answer the following questions.

In England once there lived a big
And wonderfully clever pig.
To everybody it was plain:
That piggy had a massive brain.

He worked out sums inside his head
There was no book he hadn't read.
He knew what made an aeroplane fly
He knew how engines worked and why.

He knew all this, but in the end
One question drove him round the bend:
He simply couldn't puzzle out
What Life was really all about.

- 1) Give a suitable title to the poem.
- 2) Pick out two pairs of rhyming words.
- 3) 'A wonderfully clever pig', Why does the poet say so?

Glossary :
round the bend = cracy
