Read the following passage from "The Happy Prince" and answer the questions given below:

The Mayor was walking in the city square with the Town Councillors. He looked at the statue.

"Oh! how shabby the Happy Prince looks! See, there is a dead bird at his feet. It gives a bad look to our town."

"Ha, ha! He looks like a beggar." One Councillor remarked.

"Sir can we pull the statue down?"

"Yes, I am also thinking about it. Instantly I can put my statue there." Mayor smiled.

"Your statue!" The Councillors looked at each other.

"But our Happy Prince.... We all loved and admired him a lot," another Councillor added.

"No! My statue will be there in the city." Mayor raised his voice.
