Ms Raccoon took Chester by the hand and nuzzled his ear. "Sometimes we all have to do things we don't want to do," She told him gently. "Even if they seem strange and scary at first but you will love school once you start. You'll make new friends and play with new toys. You can read new books and swing on new swings." "Besides," she added, "I know a wonderful secret that will make your nights at school seem as warm and cosy as your days at home.

Chester wiped away his tears and looked interested. "A secret? What kind of secret?" "A very old secret," said Ms Raccoon. "I learned it from my mother, and she learned it from her mother. "It's called the Kissing Hand. "The Kissing Hand?" asked Chester. "What's that?" I'll show you."
