

FIRST TERM MODEL QUESTION POOL FOR STD VII ENGLISH
(Prepared by www.educationobserver.com)

1. Diary Entry of Ricky on the Night He Saw the Robot Stealing His Things

Date: 18th July

Tonight, something really strange happened! I finally caught the robot in action. I had been suspicious for a while because my favorite T-shirt and football went missing, and no matter how much I searched, I couldn't find them. So, I decided to follow the robot quietly. To my surprise, I saw it picking up my clothes and neatly placing them in the store room. It was so strange! Why would a robot take my things? I feel both scared and curious. I need to tell Mom and Dad about this. I hope they believe me!

Ricky

2. Email to a Friend Describing the New Robot

From: Ricky123@gmail.com

To: robin14@gmail.com

Subject: Our New Robot Butler

Dear Robin,

Guess what? We got a new robot butler at home, and it's amazing! It's supposed to help with all the housework, like cooking, cleaning, and even ironing. At first, I thought it was the best thing ever because it cleaned my room while I slept. But now, I'm not so sure. It started taking my stuff, like my T-shirt and football, and hiding them! I followed it last night and caught it in the act. It's like it's got a mind of its own. I can't wait to figure out what's going on. I'll keep you updated!

Take care,
Ricky

3. Thoughts of Ricky When the Robot Rectified Its Behaviour

Ricky's Thoughts:

Wow, I never thought a robot could make me realize so much! At first, I was really angry at the robot for taking my things. I even wanted to get rid of it. But now that I understand why it was doing that, I feel a bit ashamed. The robot thought my stuff was junk because I left it lying around carelessly. It wasn't broken or faulty; it was just trying to be efficient. I guess I needed this lesson to start taking better care of my things. From now on, I'll be more responsible, just like the robot.

Character Sketch of Ricky

Ricky is an 11-year-old boy who is playful and carefree, often leaving his things scattered around the house. He is excited about having a robot butler at home, but when his favorite items start disappearing, he becomes suspicious and angry. Despite his initial frustration, Ricky is curious and determined, eventually discovering that the robot was only trying to clean up his mess. This realization makes Ricky feel ashamed, and he decides to become more responsible and organized, showing that he is a thoughtful boy who learns from his mistakes.

1. Letter Written by the Author to His Niece Explaining About His UAE Trip

Dear Sushama,

I hope you are doing well. I wanted to tell you all about my recent trip to the UAE. It was an unexpected journey, but I enjoyed every moment of it. I started in Ras Al-Khaimah and then traveled to Abu Dhabi. The places I saw were so modern and beautiful! The beaches were quiet and peaceful, and the Burj Khalifa in Dubai was simply breathtaking. I also visited the Louvre Abu Dhabi Museum, which has some of the world's most fascinating art and artifacts. Although my visit was short, it was full of amazing sights. I wish you were there with me to see it all!

Take care and write back soon.

Love,
Nishanth

2. Thoughts of the Author When He Saw the Modern UAE

The author was filled with wonder and amazement when he saw the modern UAE. He couldn't believe how much the country had changed and developed. The tall buildings, especially the Burj Khalifa, and the clean, serene beaches made him realize how advanced and beautiful the UAE had become. He admired the country's progress and felt a sense of awe at the modern architecture and well-maintained cities. The blend of tradition and modernity left a deep impression on him, making him appreciate the unique charm of the UAE.

3. Diary of the Author on the Day of His Visit to Abu Dhabi

Date: [Day, Month]

Today was an incredible day! I visited Abu Dhabi and was amazed by the sights I saw. The drive from Ras Al-Khaimah to Abu Dhabi was long but worth it. The beaches were so calm and beautiful, making me feel a sense of peace. But the highlight of my day was visiting the Louvre Abu Dhabi Museum. It is such a magnificent place, full of art and history. I could only spend half a day there, but I wish I had more time to explore. The UAE has truly surprised me with its modern wonders. I can't wait to see what tomorrow brings.

4. Conversation Between the Author and His Friend Asokan About UAE

Author: Asokan, I must say, I am truly amazed by what I've seen here in the UAE. The development is unbelievable!

Asokan: Yes, the UAE has grown so much over the years. The skyscrapers, the clean streets, and the advanced infrastructure are impressive, aren't they?

Author: Absolutely! The Burj Khalifa was stunning, and the beaches are so peaceful. I never expected to see such a mix of modernity and tradition.

Asokan: That's what makes the UAE unique. It's a place where the old and the new coexist beautifully. Did you enjoy your visit to the Louvre Abu Dhabi?

Author: Oh, very much! The museum is a treasure trove of art and history. I only wish I had more time to explore it fully.

Asokan: That's the thing with the UAE—there's always something more to see and experience. I'm glad you enjoyed your trip.

Author: Indeed, Asokan. This trip has given me a new perspective on this fascinating country. Thank you for showing me around!

1. Thoughts of Kafka When He Saw the Crying Girl

When Kafka saw the little girl crying because she had lost her doll, he felt sad for her. He wanted to comfort her and make her feel better. He quickly thought of a way to cheer her up by pretending that the doll had gone on a journey. Kafka wanted to bring a smile to her face and help her forget her sadness.

2. Diary Entry of Kafka on the Day He First Saw the Girl

Date: [Day, Month]

Today, while walking in the park, I met a little girl who was crying because she lost her doll. I felt so sorry for her and wanted to help. To cheer her up, I told her that her doll had gone on an exciting trip around the world. She seemed to feel better after hearing that. I promised her that I would bring her letters from the doll. I hope this makes her happy again.

Kafka

3. Invitation Card Sent by the Doll to the Girl for Inviting Her to the Doll's Marriage

You Are Invited!

Dear Irma,

I am so excited to invite you to my wedding!

Date: [Day, Month]

Time: [Time]

Place: In a beautiful garden far, far away

Please join us as we celebrate this happy occasion.

With lots of love,

Your Doll, Levi

4. Character Sketch of Kafka

Kafka is a kind and imaginative person who cares deeply about others, especially children. When he saw a little girl crying over her lost doll, he immediately wanted to help her feel better. Kafka's creativity shone through when he came up with the idea of writing letters from the doll, pretending that it had gone on a journey. His actions show that he is not only compassionate but also thoughtful and clever, always thinking of ways to bring joy to those around him. Kafka's gentle nature and quick thinking make him a beloved character who touches the hearts of those he meets.

www.educationobserver.com