possible diary entry questions

1. Helen Keller After Graduation

Date:

Today is a very special day! I graduated from college, and I feel so happy. It was a hard journey, but I never gave up. I thank my teacher, Miss Sullivan, for helping me every step of the way. She always believed in me. This day shows that with hard work, anything is possible. I hope my story helps others to follow their dreams too.

2. Helen Keller's Mother on Helen's Graduation Day

Date:

I am so proud of Helen today! She graduated from college, something we thought would never happen. I remember the days when she couldn't talk or hear, but she worked so hard to reach here. Miss Sullivan was like an angel for Helen, teaching her everything. This is the happiest day of my life!

3. Anne Sullivan on Helen's Graduation Day

Date:

Today is a day I will never forget. Helen graduated from college, and I feel so proud of her. She worked very hard to make this happen. I always knew she could do it. Watching her grow and learn has been the most amazing part of my life. Helen is a true inspiration to everyone.

4. Ranji After Winning the Match

Date:

What a great day! We won the match, and I scored so many runs. Mr. Kumar's magic bat really helped me feel confident. I played my best, and my team was so happy. Everyone cheered for me, and it felt amazing. I can't wait to tell Mr. Kumar the good news.

5. Mr. Kumar After Ranji's Victory

Date:

I am so proud of Ranji today! He scored many runs and led his team to victory. He learned that confidence and hard work are more important than a magic bat. Watching him believe in himself was so special. I always knew he had the talent to shine.

6. Totto-Chan After the Tour

Date:

Today was the last day of our school tour, and I had so much fun! We visited so many places, played games, and even told ghost stories at night. The hot spring was amazing, and I loved swimming with my friends. Our teachers made sure we had a great time. I will never forget this trip. It was the best ever!
