

SECOND TERM EVALUATION 2024-25

ENGLISH MODEL QUESTION PAPER 2- ANSWER KEY

Standard: VII

Activity 1: Comprehension Passage

- 1. Why was Meera's bookstore special for the children in the town?
Meera's bookstore was special because it was not just a place to buy books but a haven where children gathered to listen to her fascinating tales.
- 2. How did Aryan's first visit to the bookstore change him?
Aryan's first visit helped him overcome his shyness. He started visiting regularly, sharing his own stories, and eventually became a confident storyteller.
- 3. What qualities of Meera helped Aryan come out of his shell?
Meera's kindness, encouragement, and ability to inspire confidence helped Aryan come out of his shell.
- 4. Suggest a title for the passage.
 - "The Magic of Meera's Bookstore"
 - "The Secret Forest and Aryan's Journey"
- 5. What lesson can we learn from the relationship between Meera and Aryan?
We learn that encouragement, kindness, and sharing stories can help people grow and discover their potential.

Activity 2: Creative Writing

Sample Questions for Anne Sullivan:

1. What were the biggest challenges you faced while teaching Helen Keller?
2. How did you develop innovative teaching methods for Helen?
3. What inspired you to take up the task of teaching a child with disabilities?
4. Can you share a memorable moment from your time with Helen Keller?
5. What advice would you give to teachers working with differently-abled students?

Activity 3: Profile Writing

Model Profile of Stephen Hawking:

Stephen Hawking was born on 8 January 1942 in Oxford, England. He was a renowned theoretical physicist, cosmologist, and author. His major work, A Brief History of Time, brought complex scientific ideas to the general public. Diagnosed with ALS, he faced paralysis for most of his life but made groundbreaking contributions to black hole physics. Hawking became a global symbol of resilience, brilliance, and determination, inspiring millions worldwide.

Activity 4: Writing Thoughts

Sample Answer (First Person):

Today, I learned my first word—"water." It feels like I have entered a whole new world. Miss Sullivan made me feel the cool stream of water while she spelled the word into my hand. I never knew learning could feel so magical. For the first time, I feel connected to the world around me, and I am so excited to learn more words. I am so grateful to Miss Sullivan for opening this door for me!

Activity 5: Character Sketch

Model Answer:

The headmaster in Totto-Chan: The Little Girl at the Window was a unique educator who valued individuality. He believed in innovative teaching methods and made learning an enjoyable experience for children. His encouraging and kind nature helped children feel comfortable and motivated to explore their potential. The headmaster's impact on Totto-Chan was profound, as he nurtured her curiosity and self-confidence, shaping her into a confident and empathetic individual.

Activity 6: Editing Sentences

1. Stephen Hawking was born in 1942.
2. Meera's bookstore is full of old stories.
3. Aryan doesn't know how to talk to strangers.
4. The headmaster taught the students how to be confident.
5. Helen Keller learns to spell "water" with Anne Sullivan's help.