ENGLISH MODEL QUESTIONS with ANSWERS

Standard: VII

possible Speech writing questions

1. Helen Keller's Graduation Speech

Hello everyone,

Today is a very special day for me. I never thought I could reach this moment. Losing my sight and hearing was hard, but I never gave up. My teacher, Miss Sullivan, was my guiding light. She believed in me and taught me to read, write, and communicate. This degree is not just mine—it's a victory for all who believed in me. I hope my journey inspires others to never lose hope. With hard work and support, we can all achieve our dreams. Thank you to everyone who helped me along the way.

2. Ranji Speaking After Winning a Match

Hi everyone,

I am so happy today! We won the match, and it feels amazing. Before the game, I was nervous, but Mr. Kumar gave me his magic bat and told me to believe in myself. I played my best, and it worked! I learned that confidence and practice are the real magic. I want to thank my teammates for their support and the audience for cheering us on. This match will always be special to me, and I will keep working hard to improve. Thank you!

3. Mr. Kumar Encouraging Young Players

Hello young cricketers,

Cricket is not just a game; it teaches you lessons for life. To be a great player, you need hard work, patience, and teamwork. Some players think they need lucky items, like a "magic bat," but the real magic is in your confidence and practice. Believe in yourself, and you can achieve anything. Always support your teammates and respect your opponents. Remember, it's not just about winning but also about learning. Keep playing, keep practicing, and never give up. You are the stars of tomorrow. Thank you.

4. Totto-Chan Speaking After a School Trip

Hi friends,

Our school trip was so much fun! We visited many exciting places and learned so much. My favorite part was swimming in the hot spring—it was amazing! I also enjoyed playing games with my classmates and telling stories at night. This trip brought us all closer together, and I feel so happy to have such great friends and teachers. I will never forget this trip and the wonderful memories we made. Thank you to our teachers for organizing everything. I can't wait for our next adventure!
