They did not like to wake up early in the morning. But the lady was very strict. As soon as the cock started crowing she would wake them up. She hurried them to start their works.

The servants were quite fed up with their mistress's early morning call. One day one of them said to the other "We must kill the cock to get a longer and undisturbed sleep.

Our mistress wakes up on hearing the crowing cock.

When the cock is not there, she won't be able to wake up early. And if she herself does not wake up early then no one will disturb our sleep.

The other servant also liked the idea. They killed the cock on the next day. Now that the cock was not there, the old lady did not have the way to know the appropriate time to wake up. The lady was now more attentive. She started waking up early than before. Once she got up from her bed. She would immediately call her servants to wake up.

The servants' idea backfired on them and they faced a tougher time ahead. Servants understood that wrong means can't yield a right thing.
